THE BANK OF ITALY INCREASES STOCK

At the regular monthly meeting held by the board of directors of the Bank of Italy, April 7th, initial steps were taken to increase the capital stock of the corporation from $5,000,000 to $10,000,000. A call was issued for a special meeting of the stockholders to be held on Monday, June 2nd, 1919, for the purpose of considering and acting upon the proposition.

The contemplated increase is rendered necessary by the requirements of the State Banking Law, the limit of required capital reserve in the savings department having been almost reached. It is also deemed advisable to provide additional capital to meet the cost of constructing the new bank building to be erected in San Francisco on the corner of Powell and Eddy streets.

Ten thousand shares of the new stock will be issued immediately upon the authorization of the increase, present stockholders being entitled to the first right to purchase one share of the new issue for every five shares now owned.

Similar action was taken on Friday April 4th, by the board of directors of the Stockholders Auxiliary Corporation, the bank's subsidiary corporation, increasing the capital stock from $500,000 to $1,000,000, a special meeting of the stockholders being called for Wednesday, June 11th, 1919, for the purpose of authorizing the increase.

Each share of Bank of Italy stock carries with it a share in the Auxiliary Corporation and the price at which the combined shares is to be put out is $150.

As indicative of the remarkable growth of this banking institution attention is directed to the fact that it began business in October, 1904, with a paid in capital of $250,000. With this latest issue of 10,000 additional shares the paid in capital will be increased to $6,000,000, with surplus and undivided profits of $2,500,000. The total resources of the bank to date approximate $100,000,000.

REV. F. H. MAAR PASSES EVERLASTING REST

Ten members of the local Congregational church went over to Oakland Monday to attend the funeral of Rev. F. H. Maar a former pastor of the local church. The services were held in Calvary Congregational church of which the deceased was pastor emeritus at the time of his death. The church was crowded with the friends of the departed minister and the floral offering were beautiful. The pastor of Calvary church, Rev. F. S. Price and Dr. Raymond Brooke of the First Congregational church of Berkeley conducted the services and the interment was private. Mr. Maar was born in Nurenberg, Germany, fifty-seven year ago. He came to America as a very young man and for a while followed the machinists trade. He then went into the ministry. His first church was at Niles, California, where he ministered for seven years, in 1896 he came to Redwood City and remained until 1903. From here he went to Calvary church, Oakland and preached for seven years when a stroke of paralysis took him from active work. Since then he has been an invalid. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. May W. Maar, a daughter, Miss Elsa Maar and a son, Sidney Maar.

WALTER WAITE WAS ACQUITTED BY A JURY

Walter Waite, accused of an unmentionable crime committed at San Bruno some months ago, was acquitted of the charge by a jury in the superior court on Wednesday afternoon. The only direct evidence against him was given by Harold Calkins, an eleven year old boy. The child was bright and told a convincing story of the alleged crime but it is evident that the jury did not wish to convict the accused on such testimony. Mr. Waite is a member of the Salvation Army and a number of his followers attended the trial. A large number of witnesses testified to the character of Mr. Waite. His faithful wife and young daughter remained by his side during the trial John D. Willard appeared for the accused and showed much skill and ability in handling the case. His argument to the jury was masterful and eloquent and one of the very best heard in the court room for some time. Ray B. Lyon made the argument for the prosecution. This was his first effort before a jury in the superior court. The young man acquitted himself admirably. The jury was out ten minutes when it returned a verdict of not guilty. Waite and his family reside at San Bruno. Harold Calkins, the complaining witness lived with the family in 1918. Waite spent his boyhood at Menlo Park.

MUNICIPAL BATH HOUSES TO BE OPEN ON MAY 3

On May 3 the municipal bathing houses at the beach on Homestead creek, near town will be formerly opened by the people of Redwood City with due ceremony. It was partly arranged for the Stanford students to give an entertainment on that occasion but as the Stanford-California Regetta takes place on that day it will be impossible for them to be here. The entertainment is planned for another day when the flood gates are in. The auto parade to the grounds will take place at 3:45 p. m. All motorists are supposed to decorate their cars and everyone having a machine are invited to join in the parade. Bring your suit and lunch for a picnic after bathing. This should be a memorable occasion. Everyone join and make it so.

Workmen began erecting 75 bath houses yesterday and will complete the task by May 3. The town trustees are arranging to have flood gates put up at the bathing place so that there will be sufficient water for swimming purposes at all times. The swimming tide on May 3 will be from 4 to 6 o'clock, p. m.

REALTY TRANSACTIONS IN REDWOOD CITY AND VICINITY

The following transfers have been made this week by Chas. G. Lambert of the Redwood City Realty Co., and Dave L. Walters:

South half of lots 1 and 2, range "C" Lot 21 Portola Park, lot 1, block G, Wooster Whitton & Montgomery. Lot 3, block G. Wooster Whittton & Montgomery, lot 4, block A, Wooster Whitton & Montgomery. Lot 11, block 5, Wellesley Park, also house at No. 1025 Fourth avenue, San Mateo, also house at No. 1029 Fourth avenue, San Mateo, account of San Mateo Savings Bank. Lot 3 of a portion of block "G", Wooster Whitton & Montgomery Subdivision, on Lincoln avenue, upon which a very pretty bungalow is now being erected. It is their intention to build a number of bungalows on the same street, as there seems to be a demand for new homes in Redwood City. Other sales were four lots and a five-room cottage in Dumbarton Oaks for A. Bosc to James Kalteran of the Magnesia Works. Three lots on the corner of Manzanita street and the State Highway of the Phelps estate to Joseph Basso, upon which he will immediately erect a building for busines purposes.

To Euphrasie and Camille Raynal, lots 7 and 8, Dillers Addition to Redwood City, upon which Mr. and Mrs. Raynal have let a contract for a new home. They also sold to Walter L. DeBuys, a business man of San Francisco ,who recently came to the coast from New York City, and who fell in love with our wonderful climatic attractions, the beautiful home of Henrietta Meyer on Finger Lane, adjoining Wellesley Park, and into which he will move next month. This means the addition of a very desirable family to Redwood City, and we are very sorry to lose Mrs. Meyer, and her family, as they will probably locate again in Victoria, B. C.

They have also been appointed the exclusive agents of Woodside Knolls, which is on the Woodside road between Redwood City and Woodside, and where very beautiful subdivisions are now being opened up for home seekers.

At Modesto where Chas. G. Lambert spent a few days two weeks ago he sold two houses, and ten lots, and realty activities are such that it will be necessary for him to give that portion of the Realty Company's holding his personal supervision a part of the time each week. He is leaving for Modesto again Monday evening.

Among other large properties recently sold by Walter and Lambert were the John A. Britton home, and the Douglas Watson home, also the Smith place at San Carlos, and several more large sales will be shortly announced.

The former bar of the Sequoia Hotel building ,has been leased to Mr. Thomas of San Francisco for a first-class candy store, and the front is being remodeled to suit his purposes.

CHRIS JORGENSEN ATTEMPTS SUICIDE

Chris Jorgensen was brought to the Huling hospital from Woodside on Thursday morning suffering from an ugly wound on his throat. Jorgensen had been drinking heavily and was recovering from a spree when it is thought he slashed his throat with suicidal intent in a moment of frenzy. He lives in a small building on the Haaker property.

Sometime Wednesday night he committed the act which nearly cost him his life. Two razors were found in his room. After laying all night in his apartment he crawled to the blacksmith shop of George Shine Thursday morning. Mr. Shine brought him to the hospital. In the afternoon he was removed to the county hospital at San Mateo. He will recover, though the juggler vein is partly severed. Jorgensen could not explain his rash act. He had resided at Woodside for the past five years. He is a laborer by occupation.

THE WEEK'S EVENTS IN LOCAL CIRCLES

A baby girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. Tony Ramon in Redwood City on Monday ,April 14.

Roberson and Carlson have purchased the local agency of the Premier Oil Burner and are ready and prepared to fill all orders. Mr. W. P. Montague who has exhibited the burner on Broadway for the past month has gone to Santa Cruz.

Edward Foley, a former well-known resident of Redwood City, had his right hand amputated above the wrist at San Mateo last week. Mr. Foley injured his hand some months ago with the result that it had to be amputated to save the limb. Owing to Mr. Foley's advanced age the affliction is a particularly sad one. Mr. Foley is a pioneer of the county.

The Y. W. C. A. is making a canvass of the territory between San Mateo and Mayfield to raise $10,000 for the work. The money raised is for the support of the Chapter at Stanford University and if the people of this city desire, the Girls Center will be turned into a Y. W. C. A. The quota for Redwood City and Woodside is $750. Mrs. Z. T. Thorning and Mrs. D. W. Williams have charge of collections here.

Harry Jacobsen, a former business man of this city and now one of the officials of the Frank Tanning company, was in Redwood City yesterday. Mr. Jacobsen has just returned from an eastern trip and says that all indications point to a most prosperous year for our country.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Johnston and Mrs. O. M. Carrington and children motored down to Santa Cruz Wednesday and visited with the J. Leslie Johnston's. On their return they were accompanied by Miss Petra Johnston who had been spending the fore part of her vacation in getting acquainted with her little nephew.

Otis M. Carrington and Dr. N. C. Cummings returned from Gilroy Hot Springs Wednesday, after having spent several days at that resort.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bettin with their two daughters, Alice and Louise came down from San Francisco Saturday and remained until Monday, visiting friends. Lieutenant and Mrs. Geo. Bettin were also local visitors and left for their home at Glendora Wednesday.

Ten members of the Senior Class, the members of Miss Wolfenden's U. S. History Class, at Sequoia High School, went up to South San Francisco Tuesday and visited the Pacific Coast Steel Works and the Enterprise Foundry. Mr. Henry Martins, president of the Enterprise Foundry then took the party to the Utah street branch of his company in San Francisco and showed the young people how castings are made and explained to them the general principles of foundry work.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Hughes, old-time residents of this city were in Redwood this week visiting friends. They recently sold their home at Santa Cruz and contemplate locating here.

J. MC CORMICK AN OLD PIONEER DIED MONDAY

James McCormick, a pioneer of Pescadero and well-known throughout the county, passed away at St. Francis hospital in San Francisco last Monday morning. He went to the hospital four weeks ago from his home at Pescadero suffering from a slight ailment. Something over a week ago appendicitis developed and he was operated upon by Doctor Gallway, the noted surgeon. The patient recovered quickly from the effects of the operation and was convalescing nicely when early on Monday last Mr. McCormick's heart began to trouble him and in a few hours he passed to the beyond.

His death was wholly unexpected His family was hopeful that he would be able to return to his home in a few days.

Mr. McCormick was a leader of the democratic party in San Mateo county for over forty years. In the late eighties he was defeated by George W. Lovie for assessor. It was one of the hardest fought campaigns that ever took place in the county. Mr. McCormick was very popular and although the county was largely republican, Mr. McCormick ran many hundred votes ahead of his ticket.

Mr. McCormick was born near Dublin, Ireland, 79 years ago. His parents emigrated when he was seven years old, settling in Carthage, Jefferson county, New York. In 1863 James McCormick left home, starting for San Francisco, which he reached in January 15, 1864. After about nine months in Santa Cruz he came to Pescadero, where he resided ever since, engaged, until 1873 in dairying and farming, connected in the former occupation with Levy Brothers. It was the last named year he bought the store of John Garretson, and his partnership with P. G. Stryker conducted the business for four years, when they sold out to Garretson, the former proprietor. While in the ownership of the mercantile business Mr. McCormick did not give it his personal attention, as he was then serving as deputy assessor and road supervisor, in the interests of the democratic party. For thirty years he had been connected with the Pescadero Fast Freight Company. In the milling business he had also large interests, having assisted in the erection of the powder mill of Santa Cruz.

Mr. McCormick was married January 12, 1866 to Miss Julia Shaffrey.

The funeral held at Pescadero on Wednesday last, was the largest ever seen in the little town of Pescadero. St. Anthony's Catholic church was crowded to the door with friends of the deceased. The services were very impressive. Mr. McCormick's brother, John McCormick, only preceded him to the grave two months ago. An only brother, William McCormick of San Francisco, survives him.

Mr. McCormick is survived by the following children: James Jr., Ella and Julia McCormick; Mrs. G. L. Falkenstein, Mrs. Frances Cushing, Mrs. C. P. Bradley and Mrs. G. H. Winkle. A brother, William McCormick ,also survives.

HOW TO ERADICATE BOLSHEVISM AT HOME

The Republican Publicity Association, through its President, Hon. Jonathan Bourne, Jr., yesterday gave out the following statement from its Washington headquarters:

"Bolshevism in the last analysis is the protest of the lower classes of society against what they conceive to be the oppression of those occupying a higher plane. It is the attempt of the peasantry to cast off the yoke of hunger, discouraging taxation, and enforced military service under which they have been struggling in Europe for years, and to give themselves the privileges they have seen enjoyed by the various strata of society above them. The French Revolution was but an outbreak of Bolshevism, brought about by the excesses of the French court of the times. The French Commune of a later date was another popular protest against the conditions under which the common people were forced to live in the Second Emprie.

"The ground has been prepared for years for the outbreak of Bolshevism in Russia. Autocratic rulers, crushing taxation, no attempt to alleviate the conditions of the working class—all contributed to a state of social unrest which needed but a spark to start a general uprising among the masses. The war furnished the pretext. Conscription of the men to fight for a cause they knew nothing of; horrible slaughter of soldiers, undertrained, frequently unarmed, and utterly incapable of competing with the German war machine; and taxation, increased ever further by the war's demands, furnished a fertile field for the insidious German propaganda cunningly designed to encourage the plain people of Russia to revolt against existing conditions. Once they had tasted power and realized that no government could exist without their support the people were quick to take control, turn out their former rulers, and set up a system of their own. Progress from that state of affairs to the present chaos in Russia has been but a natural evolution.

"In Hungary the people likewise have felt the oppression of unreasonable monarchies. Their situation has been similar to that of the Russians, although perhaps less severe. With them, too, the war has furnished the flame to kindle the mouldering revolt of the lower classes. The same may be said of Germany, although in that country another government succeeded that of the kaiser so quickly that it was able, by stern repressive measures, to keep down the fires of Bolshevism, at least for the time being.

"But what of our own country? We hear of headquarters of the Bolsheviki in the United States, of hundreds of agencies they have established among our people, and that our mails are being flooded with their propaganda. Largely in the proportion that our institutions oppress the Aemrican people, as the governmental systems of the Old World bear upon its peoples, will the dangerous seed take root among us and flourish. It cannot succeed among a contented, well-fed, busy population. It will become implanted and grow where discontent is the rule, where decent food is beyond the reach of the poor, and where unemployment exists to any extent.

"To prevent Bolshevism in America we must resort to introspection. If any of those conditions are present at any point then danger threatens at that place. The causes for discontent whether from governmental autocracy or otherwise, must be ascertained and eradicated; it is imperative that the price of food be brought down to the lowest possible level; and employment found for every able-bodied man. When that is done (and a speedy consummation of the world peace, with a resumption of normal international commerce, will contribute more to those ends than anything else) then we can rest serene in the confidence that we are safe from the destructive influences of Bolshevism."

CHEER UP

There is nothing but encouragement and reassurance in the continued heavy export trade of the United States. Europe is buying heavily for reconstruction purposes and to make up for reduced purchases in certain lines during the war. There was an expected reaction immediately following the armistice, accentuated somewhat by delay of the government in making payments on cancellation of war contracts, but the situation so far as permanent business is concerned, is sound, except for the need of a protective tariff law. The new Republican Congress will attend to that—thus preventing injurious foreign competition with any important American industry. Having our own markets protected, and having a heavy demand from abroad, we shall enjoy a long period of industrial prosperity.

HAD A FINE TIME

The Department of Labor's industrial junketeers, who sailed in January to study labor conditions abroad, and possibly to catch a few crumbs from royal tables, have returned. Like Mr. Hurley, who meandered abroad to enforce a world-wide marine wage-scale, they returned with open minds and ears to the ground after an enjoyable trip at public expense which netted them no concrete information. It is now Secretary Redfield's turn to provide for a junket. European tours de luxe at public expense for government officials looking forward to retirement in 1920 are the order of the day. "On account of the war."

NOBLE WOMAN LAID TO REST

In the death of Mrs. Phoebe Hearst California has lost a noble woman, the people a good friend and humanity a benefactor. Her good deeds will live after her, her many benefactions will serve as a monument to her memory. Though blessed with an abundance of this world's goods she used them for humanity and put them to proper use. These gifts were used to help those in distress and to make others happy. Mrs. Hearst's name will ever remain green in the memory of the people of California and her good deeds will often be recalled by those who knew and loved her. Mrs. Hearst was a noble woman, generous in her charity and considerate of the poor and needy. Such a woman deserves a fitting place of repose in God's Kingdom above.

HEADLINE HARBINGERS

Out of eight column headlines in one of the leading metropolitan dailies of a recent issue, an issue printed when we are supposed to be either at peace or close to it, the following story is told: "Allied Missions Seized-Interned at Budapest at request of Lenine." "Guns Rule Budapest." "All Egypt in Revolt." "Poland, Roumania and Jungoslaves Fear Bolshevik Invasion." "Council Needs Chief—Leader Wanted at Peace Table to Bring End to Discord." And no wtake a look at the following one which represents what is going right on just as though the other headlines never existed. "A representative of blind egotism and stubborn will; a representative of the limit to which a man will go who believes in theories above practical things. "Wilson Draws Clause to Guard Monroe Code-League Powers Limited—Can Recommend, but Not Force. Reduction in Armament." Such a comparison needs no explanation. In its subtle way it speaks for itself.

SOCIAL AGENCIES WILL MEET IN SAN JOSE APRIL 22-27

The California State Conference of Social Agencies, which will meet at San Jose April 22-25 is to have sections on all phases of social work. One may choose as many as he is interested in. The mornings and afternoons will be divided into four sections and in the evenings all sections will unite in a general meeting, when speakers of national and international reputation will speak.

Paul Kellogg, the editor of the "Survey" said to be the man in closest touch with every phase of social work, will speak, as well as Will Irwin, Edward Devine and others of equal note.

The Red Cross will have several section. One is to be devoted to home service. There will be papers on how far Home Service depends on existing agencies and how it can be supplemented by such agencies. There will be public Health, Chambers of Commerce and their relation to Social and Educational Agencies, Employment Management, and many others. There will be interesting discussions of Courts and Rehabiliation.

Another section is to be devoted to a discussion of Welfare Work in stores and industries ,this we know is being done along many lines of work by far-seeing employers.

Fortunately it is now only the lagging few who do not realize the importance of constructive, rather than corrective work along all lines of effort. If we are self-centered we know we must improve conditions in general, for fear they may in the great cycle of life smite us or our families. If, on the other hand, we have 'Social Vision' we are interested because we believe in the Golden Rule.

Space forbids a detailed account but all information may be had from the California State Conference of Social Agencies, Chamber of Commerce, San Jose.

PATIENT LOSES SUIT AGAINST BELMONT SANITARIUM

A suit for the recovery of a certain sum of money paid by Charles Murphy, for the care and maintenance during his lifetime, at the Nerve Rest Sanitarium, Belmont, was decided in favor of the defendant, Maude C. Reed, proprietor, and S. M. St. John, manager of the sanitarium, by Superior Judge George H. Buck, Monday morning. There was no testimony brought before the court to verify the complaint of the plaintiff as to alleged misrepresentation, on the part of the defendants; the verdict of the court being a complete vindication of the latter. Judge Buck rendered his decision in the case without leaving the bench, and expressed the opinion in open court that a woman ,whom he named residing in Belmont, was responsible for the alleged grievances of the plaintiff. The plaintiff was represented by Attorney Joseph J. Bullock, and the defendant by Attorney Jos. Rothchild, of San Francisco.

PEACE MISSION ASKS SUPPORT OF FIFTH LOAN

Urges American People to Finish the Job by Taking the Victory Loan

Four members of the American peace mission in France, Secretary of State Robert Lansing, Col. E. M. House, General Tasker N. Bliss and Henry White, have sent this message to the American people urging support of the Victory Loan:

"TO THE AMERICAN PEOPLE:

"We have had the opportunity here in France to see and realize the magnitude of the accomplishment of our country in this war and the magnificent spirit with which this great task has been carried through to a triumphant issue.

"What has been done and what remains to be done before normal conditions are restored demand your continued and united support with the same spirit of self sacrifice and of determination as that which was manifested by the nation while the German armies faced our men at the Marne, and in the Champagne, at St. Mihiel and in the Argonne. We must not relax our efforts until every soldier of the republic is landed on the soil of America.

"To finish this mighty task imposes upon the government of the United States a great financial burden. The Victory Liberty Loan must thrive. If it should fail it would indicate that the Nation is willing to leave its task uncompleted.

"To secure the ideals for which Americans fought and died this great demand on national patriotism and united effort should meet a generous and universal response. Let us do our duty to the end.

HOW TO ERADICATE BOLSHEVISM AT HOME

The Republican Publicity Association, through its President, Hon. Jonathan Bourne, Jr., yesterday gave out the following statement from its Washington headquarters:

"Bolshevism in the last analysis is the protest of the lower classes of society against what they conceive to be the oppression of those occupying a higher plane. It is the attempt of the peasantry to cast off the yoke of hunger, discouraging taxation, and enforced military service under which they have been struggling in Europe for years, and to give themselves the privileges they have seen enjoyed by the various strata of society above them. The French Revolution was but an outbreak of Bolshevism, brought about by the excesses of the French court of the times. The French Commune of a later date was another popular protest against the conditions under which the common people were forced to live in the Second Emprie.

"The ground has been prepared for years for the outbreak of Bolshevism in Russia. Autocratic rulers, crushing taxation, no attempt to alleviate the conditions of the working class—all contributed to a state of social unrest which needed but a spark to start a general uprising among the masses. The war furnished the pretext. Conscription of the men to fight for a cause they knew nothing of; horrible slaughter of soldiers, undertrained, frequently unarmed, and utterly incapable of competing with the German war machine; and taxation, increased even further by the war's demands, furnished a fertile field for the insidious German propaganda cunningly designed to encourage the plain people of Russia to Revolt against existing conditions. Once they had tasted power and realized that no government could exist without their support the people were quick to take control, turn out their former rulers, and set up a system of their own. Progress from that state of affairs to the present chaos in Russia has been but a natural evolution.

"In Hungary the people likewise have felt the oppression of unreasonable monarchies. Their situation has been similar to that of the Russians, although perhaps less severe. With them, too, the war has furnished the flame to kindle the mouldering revolt of the lower classes. The same may be said of Germany, although in that country another government succeeded that of the kaiser so quickly that it was able, by stern repressive measures, to keep down the fires of Bolshevism, at least for the time being.

"But what of our own country? We hear of headquarters of the Bolsheviki in the United States, of hundreds of agencies they have established among our people, and that our mails are being flooded with their propaganda. Largely in the proportion that our institutions oppress the Aemrican people, as the governmental systems of the Old World bear upon its peoples, will the dangerous seed take root among us and flourish. It cannot succeed among a contented, well-fed, busy population. It will become implanted and grow where discontent is the rule, where decent food is beyond the reach of the poor, and where unemployment exists to any extent.

"To prevent Bolshevism in America we must resort to introspection If any of those conditions are present at any point then danger threatens at that place. The causes for discontent whether from governmental autocracy or otherwise, must be ascertained and eradicated; it is imperative that the price of food be brought down to the lowest possible level; and employment found for every able-bodied man. When that is done (and a speedy consummation of the world peace, with a resumption of normal international commerce, will contribute more to those ends than anything else) then we can rest serene in the confidence that we are safe from the destructive influences of Bolshevism."

WOODSIDE NOTES

Tuesday afternoon last at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Jenkins on Albion avenue a reception took place in honor of Mrs. James Warren who recently arrived from her home in Reno, Nevada. Mrs. Warren is a daughter of Mrs. C. S. Dalve and spent her girlhood at Woodside. Mr. and Mrs. Jenkins were assisted by their pretty daughter, Miss Elizabeth Jenkins, in receiving the many guests About thirty persons were present to pay their respects to the visitors Delightful refreshments were served by the host and hostess. The afternoon was spent in conversation, dancing and story telling. Mrs. Warren in a delightful manner recounted the many incidents of her early life in Woodside.

Many of the wealthy residents are moving down from the city for the summer. The Jacksons, Talbots, Hoopers, Josselyns, Folgers, Schillings will soon be here.

Fishing is reported excellent in all the streams in and about Woodside. The fish are said to be larger than in the creeks of La Honda or San Gregorio.

Several big sales of real estate are about to take place at Woodside that will involve the expenditure of several hundred dollars. There is at present a big demand for real estate in this locality and the demand is constantly growing.

E. D. Conolley, the local capitalist and clubman, during the week completed negotiations for the purchase of a 6000-acre ranch in Glenn county. It is the finest and most valuable property in that county. It consists of 1100 acres in rice, 500 acres in barley and 500 acres in wheat. The remainder of the farm is devoted to stock raising. A large sum was paid for the realty. Mr. Conalley maintains a beautiful home in Woodside.

PESCADERO ITEMS

Mrs. Ruth Baldwin Shaw, wife of John E. Shaw, a well-known farmer of Pescadero, passed away in San Mateo, last Saturday morning at 6:45 o'clock. She was only 36 years old and her untimely death came as a great shock to her family and a wide circle of friends on the coastside. Mrs. Shaw's husband is one of the oldest residents of Pescadero and is a brother of Edgar A. Shaw, who was a candidate for supervisor at the last election in the fifth township.

Joseph Jackson, 74 years old, an orchardist near Pescadero, passed away last Thursday at his home there He was a native of Indiana and had lived near Pescadero about ten years. A nephew has been an apple grower of the Pescadero creek region for many years.

Jackson is survived by his widow, Mary Jackson, and two sons, Roy and Whitman Jackson.

The funeral was held Friday afternoon from the Methodist Episcopal church in Pescadero with interment in the Pescadero cemetery.

HALFMOON BAY

A delightful supper of enchaladas was enjoyed at Mrs. H. C. Mall's Wednesday evening. Later, an exciting game of soxball was indulged in, with Miss Belle Vallejo.

Letters from First Sergeant Newbold Black of the Seventh F Signal Battalion, Fort Bliss, Texas, to his mother, Mrs. La Crosse, tell about the horrible sandstorms which last for three to four days, piling sand several feet deep, which has to be removed afterwards, like snow.

There will be Easter services at the M. E. church on Sunday morning, and in the evening an Easter war cantata will be held. You are cordially invited to attend both services.

No wis the time to come to the coastside. The climate is ideal and the hillsides and valleys are covered with the beautiful California poppies.

The artichoke growers of the San Pedro district are to organize an artichoke growers' association. This will make three associations we will have on the coastside of San Mateo county. The Halfmoon Bay-Coastside association and the San Francisco association. The artichokes grown in this section are the best in the world and are shipped to more distant places. It is estimated that the output will average over a million dollars per year.

Frank Simon, private in the famous California regiment, 363d, visited his mother last Saturday night and returned to the Presidio, San Francisco, Sunday morning. Frank was in the same company os Albert J. Martini of Montara. He went over the top four times and was taken to the hospital twice to receive attention for wounds. He expects to receive his discharge today and will return to his home on the coastside to resume the occupation of farmer. While Private Simon was away his father was called to the land of everlasting rest.

Word has been received by relatives that Sergeant-Major Jack J. Gomez of the 37th Squadron, Aero Corps, had arrived safely in New York after service in France of over a year.

The new management of the Hotel Half Moon will give a grand opening on Saturday evening, May 10.

AT MONTARA

Dr. Carl Gohlin, Mrs. Gohlin and Alice Rowe were visitors at Montara recently. It is reported that they will soon ocupy their bungalow.

Carl Hoskinson, Gaylord Meade, and Adolfo Lazzarini, who have served faithfully overseas in France, will oson be back in Montara. They should be given a welcome that belongs to such great service to the country.

Now Germany is instructing the peace conference as to what sort of peace treaty she will sign. Who won the war?

A. R. Wagner is seriously ill at his home in Montara with an attack of pneumonia.

BUILDERS' CONTRACTS FILED

The following builders' contracts were filed in the county recorder's office during the week:

The origin of ROYAL begins with the grapes on the vine. Their purity comes to you unsullied.

The leavening power of ROYAL is balanced to the exactness of an atom, never varying in the slightest degree.

The wholesomeness of ROYAL is recognized and acclaimed by the noted physicians and diet experts of the world.

The economy of ROYAL is in the prevention of waste in keeping baked foods fresh longer and making home baking so satisfying that it takes the place of more expensive foods. It surely pays to use

MENLO PARK NEWS OF ALL SORTS

Doings at Peninsula Garden Spot As Told in Breezy Style By Our Reporters

A small building to the rear of the old Pioneer stables on Oak Grove avenue was destroyed by fire at 4 o'clock yesterday morning. The house was occupied, but the origin of the blaze is unknown. The Menlo Park Fire Department was promptly on hand and did good work in saving adjoining buildings. The stables were crowded with horses and these were removed to a place of safety but it proved to be unnecessary as the firemen prevented the fire from spreading. Had the flames gotten headway the whole block would have been consumed in the blaze. The efficiency of the department was fully demonstrated on this occasion.

Live rabbits, (Bunnies) will be exhibited in the show windows of the Little Green Door, Fred Nessler, proprietor, today and tomorrow as an Easter attraction. This will please the little ones who will be given an Easter egg free by calling at the store.

Hose and Fire Truck Company, 338, that did such good work during the existence of Camp Fremont was demobilized on April 5. Three of the members, James Burke, Peter Larrecou and Lester Murray were chosen by the government to take charge of the new fire house here for a time. The young men are on duty day and night receiving a salary of $100 a month. These salaries are paid by the government for the present in appreciation of the efficient services rendered the camp during the past two years.

The pretty and charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Walter of Atherton, will be united in marriage next Wednesday, April 23, at high noon at the home of the parents to Lieutenant H. M. Baruch of Los Angeles. Elaborate preparations are being made at the attractive Walter home for the happy event. Guests will arrive from all parts of the county during the morning and all the early trains will bring friends from San Francisco. It will be strictly a June wedding with all that appertains to such affairs. The young couple will reside at Los Angeles. The clever bride-to-be is a highly intellectual woman ,a talented musician and an accomplished and beautiful young lady. She has a host of friends on the peninsula who wish her and her prospective husband every success in life.

Owing to the fact that the 363 and 347 regiments will arrive in San Francisco on Monday next the card party and dance to be given by the Native Sons and Native Daughters has been postponed until the following Friday evening, April 25. The young men from Menlo Park who will arrive from the east with their regiments are, Frank Derry, John Cullen, Henry Walsh and others. Many from here will go up to the city to greet the boys who have made records for themselves overseas in battling with the Hun. Big preparations are being made in San Francisco for the reception of these young heroes who answered their country's call and went forward to battle to do their best and make the supreme sacrifice if necessary. They could do no more. All honor to them.

Mack Toner, young son of Mrs. Mary Naselli, was united in marriage in San Francisco last Saturday to Miss Lillian Griesmann of Brooklyn, New York. Young Toner was recently discharged from the U. S. navy. He spent two years overseas. The bride is an unusually pretty and charming young woman. The Toners will reside in Menlo Park.

A representative of Henry Ford was here during the week interviewing property owners at Camp Fremont. Such rediculously high prices were put upon their land that the Ford man departed in disgust. A representative of Libby, McNeil and Company was also here during the week seeking to purchase the warehouses from the government to start a packing plant here. It is believed this concern will locate here.

James V. Coleman, who passed away in San Francisco last Sunday, was well-known here in the early eighties. He resided with his mother and two sisters at the Major Rathone place, now the Payne property. He was a young man then, ambitious and eager to make a name and place for himself in the political world. Along in 1884 he was chosen assemblyman from this county defeating the late Horace Hawes by only eight votes. He served for two terms. His mother and aunt, Mrs. Macdonough were then prominent in local affairs. Mr. Coleman was a nephew of W. O'Brien, of the Bonanza fame and he inherited a portion of his wealth. Mrs. Coleman erected the Coleman mansion here but she never occupied it, going east to live before it was finished. Mr. Coleman was a highly educated man, a student of the classics and before he received the O'Brien wealth was a professor at Santa Clara University where he made a record as a student. He was twice married, his first wife was known as Miss Nuttall. Mr. Coleman was a native of New York and a graduate of Georgetown College, Washington. He was a leader of the Democratic party in the state and in 1891 he was defeated for the nomination of governor. He often stumped the state for his party. He is survived by a wife and young son, James V. Coleman, aged ten years.

Mr. and Mrs. M. I. Frederick, nee Dorothy Bruce, have returned home here after making a tour of the east. Mr. Frederick was recently mustered out of the service having been a supply sergeant in the Eighth Infantry of the Eighth Division which left Camp Fremont for the front on October 19 last. It was at Camp Fremont that the pretty romance begun which culminated in the marriage of Miss Dorothy Bruce and Mr. Frederick some months ago. Mr. Frederick had reached New York prepared to embark when word was received that the war had come to a close. Mr. Frederick is a native of Indiana. He spent a year here with the army and became so attached to the locality that he has decided to reside in Menlo Park. He is engaged in the automobile business in San Francisco but will commute and make this place his home.

The many friends of G. Broggi will be pleased to learn that he is recovering from his recent illness and was able to leave the hospital at Palo Alto during the week. He is now at his home here nicely convalescing.

Two masses will be celebrated in the Church of the Nativity on Sunday, one at 8 and the other at 10:30 o'clock. The last one will be a solemn high mass. Father Hoey of St. Patrick's Seminary will preach the sermon. An augmented choir will render special music.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Lathan, nee Margaret Bruce, who reside at Burlingame, will leave on May 16 for a tour of the Orient. They will visit Honolulu, The Philippines, China, India and other places in the far east. Mr. Lathan has a large export trade of automobile accessories in the Orient and combining business with plasure will make a tour of his agencies there.
